9. DETAILS:

On October 13, 1992 S/A John Paolillo received a telephone call from Ms. Nancy Shay of 38 Jay Street Somerville, Ma. Ms. Shay was interviewed several days earlier by S/A Paolillo and S/A Edmond Cronin relative to the current bombing investigation. Ms. Shay stated she wished to inform ATF about conversation she had with her mother approximately a week ago. She felt it was significant the case and requested that no one traced this information back to her. She stated the following:

Approximately a week ago Ms. Shay received a phone call from her mother. She indicated that her mother was in an intoxicated condition at the time of the call. Her mother advised that Al Trenkler told Tommy Shay (date unknown) that he (Trenkler) had been sexually abused as a child. Trenkler then asked Tommy if he had ever been sexually abused. Ms. Shay stated that Tommy answered that question "yes" just to satisfy Trenkler. Also, Ms. Shay's mother stated that prior to the bombing, Trenkler told Tommy that he had a surprise for him. Immediately subsequent to the bombing, Trenkler allegedly asked Tommy how he liked the surprise. Ms. Shay was unable to give either when or where the above conversations took place. This was the only significant information she recalled receiving from her mother related to the bombing. Ms. Shay said she would contact ATF if anything further relating to this matter should arise.
