06/22/1995	558	. ORDER entered The above captioned case is remanded to the district court for further proceedings consistent with the opinion issued this date. This district court isto report back to this Court as soon as the further proceedings are concluded. This Court will retain appellate jurisdiction : . (fmr) (Entered: 06/22/1995)

06/22/1995	559	Opinion of the Court of Appeals , entered For the reasons described herein, the case is remanded to the district court for further proceedings consistent with this opinion. We retain jurisdiction to review the district court's conclusion as to whether it should permit Dr. Phillips to testify. . (fmr) (Entered: 06/22/1995)
07/18/1995	561	Opinion of the Court of Appeals as to Alfred W. Trenkler [556-1] appeal , entered is for the foregoing reasons, we affirm Trenkler's conviction. Because this error so severely violated defendant's Sixth Amendment right to confront the witnesses agianst him,and because the remainder of the evidence against him was not "overwhelming," I dissent. . (fmr) (Entered: 07/19/1995)

12/27/1995	570	. ORDER entered : The district court issued a procedural order on remand, concluding that "the Court of Appeals remanded the case for a determination of admissibility of Dr. Phillips' prejudice of the testimony outweighs its probative value, and under Rule 702, for a ruling whether the testimony fits the facts of the case." The government argues in its motion for clarification that the district court construed its authority on remand too narrowly. We agree. We did not determine whether the proposed testimony satisfied Rule 702's other requirements. Nor did we limit the district court's power to consider this question on remand. Thus, the government's motion is granted. . (fmr) (Entered: 12/28/1995)
