18A EVALUATION

Charles R. Forbes, M.D.

IDENTIFYING DATA: This is the first Bridgewater State Hospital admission for this seventeen year old, single, white male (DOB November 3, 1971) who was transferred to Bridgewater State Hospital on May 25, 1989 from the Dedham House of Correction under the provisions of Chapter 123, Section 18(a). Mr. Shay is awaiting trial on charges of Possession of a Stolen Motor Vehicle.

STRUCTURE OF THE EVALUATION: At the beginning of my first interview with Mr. Shay on June 8, 1989, I informed him that I was a psychiatrist about to interview him at the request of the court. I informed Mr. Shay that the content of our interviews would not be confidential and that a report would be submitted to the court. I informed him that he did not have to answer my questions and that he could terminate the interview at any time. Mr. Shay appeared to understand this and was able to rephrase my comments in his own words. Mr. Shay was interviewed on June 8, 9, 12, 13, and 19, 1989 for a total time of approximately three hours. As the patient is also currently under the custody of the Department of Social Services, I spoke with Mr. Ronald Payne, the patient's guardian at the Department of Social Services on June 15, in regards to the patient's history, recent functioning and current needs. I also discussed the patient's course of hospitalization at Bridgewater State Hospital with unit clinical staff.

CIRCUMSTANCES OF ADMISSION: Mr. Shay was accompanied by a note from John P. Hennessy, licensed psychologist stating that the presenting problem was "intent to commit suicide and major mental illness." Mr. Shay was described as "actively suicidal" and "acutely depressed." He was described also as "manifesting psychotic features." Furthermore, at that he had "stated to me and to Deputy Campbell that he would kill himself." Mr. Shay was also accompanied by a note from Paul H. Gates, M.D. stating that the patient "has had multiple admissions to mental hospitals. He has attempted suicide in the past and has announced his intentions of repeating the attempt."

PATIENT'S VERSION OF TRANSFER TO BRIDGEWATER STATE HOSPITAL: The patient reports that he had stated that he was acutely suicidal in order to be transferred from the Dedham House of Correction to a Department of Youth Services facility or to a "real hospital." He denied having been actively suicidal at the time of his examination at the Dedham House of Correction. He stated fears of being possibly mistreated by correctional officers and stated that he felt he would receive better treatment if he were transferred.

18A EVALUATION

Charles R. Forbes, M.D.

RELEVANT HISTORY: The patient is the son of Thomas Shay and Nancy Peters. He is the youngest of five siblings by both parents. He has been in custody of the Department of Social Services since the age of five. He has a history of being sexually abused as a child, beginning at about the age of nine. He has been previously hospitalized for psychiatric observation or treatment at the Fuller Memorial Hospital, Bournemouth Hospital and at Medfield State Hospital. He has a history of conduct disorder since about the age of 5 (five) manifesting itself in behavior disturbance, including fire setting and run-away behavior. More recently, he has been arrested several times and has been in Department of Youth Services facilities. His parents are divorced and he has little contact with either parent. He has a history of making suicidal statements or gestures.

PRESENT MEDICATIONS: The patient has been on no psychiatric medications since his admission to Bridgewater State Hospital.

MENTAL STATUS AS OF JUNE 19, 1989: Mr. Shay presents as a seventeen year old male, appearing his stated age. In interviews, he is generally pleasant, appropriate and cooperative. His thought processes are coherent and goal directed. Thought content shows no evidence of hallucinations, delusions or other evidence of psychosis. Mood and affect are appropriate to the situation, without evidence of major depression. He denies suicidal ideation or intent at this time. He is oriented to person, place, time and his current situation. There is no evidence of sleep or appetite disturbance. His own stated major concerns at this time are the following: 1. His current legal problem and the possibility of "doing time," 2. That neither parent will talk to him or visit, and 3. Gender identity issues, probably relating to history of being sexually abused.

DISCUSSION: At this time, Mr. Shay is showing no evidence of major mental illness. He presents, however, with characterological and gender identity issues of longstanding duration. At times, these may manifest in episodes of depression or of what appears to be manipulative behavior. His behavior may at times also appear to be provocative to others. This may make him vulnerable to ridicule or abuse by others. He has, however, experienced no major difficulties in this regard while at Bridgewater State Hospital. At this time, he is requesting to be returned to the Dedham House of Correction for adjudication of his charges. This was also discussed with Mr. Payne of DSS with his concurrence.

18A EVALUATION

Charles R. Forbes, M.D.

CONCLUSIONS AND RECOMMENDATIONS:

1. In my opinion, Mr. Shay, at this time, does not meet the criteria established in Chapter 123 for a major mental illness.
2. In my opinion, Mr. Shay can be returned to the Dedham House of Correction to await trial on the charges against him.
3. In my opinion, given Mr. Shay's history of psychiatric problems, he would benefit from being given access to the mental health team at the house of correction.

On Tuesday, June 20, 1989 at 6:45pm, patient 30120 Shay, Thomas was observed to be in an agitated state after seeing Medical personel. I CO Bevenue directed Shay to vacate the medical examination room as the medical personel were completed with their exam. As I directed Shay to vacate the area and enter the tv room, Shay became aggressive and threatening towards staff stating "I don't have to listen to any of you." Repeated attempts to get Shay to comply with ward officer directives were fruitless. At this point it was determined that Shay was a danger to himself and others on Medical.
