CRIMINAL NO. 92-10369-2
U.S. DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF
MASSACHUSETTS

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION IN LIMINE
TO EXCLUDE ANY REFERENCE TO OR OFFERING OF IMPROPER EVIDENCE

DOCKETED

The United States of America hereby moves the Court for an order precluding the defendant Alfred W. Trenkler from making any reference to or offering any evidence of the following matters during the trial of this case:

1. The fact that the offenses charged under 18 U.S.C. §844(d) and 18 U.S.C. §844(i) could have carried the penalty of death upon conviction.

2. The fact that the offenses charged under 18 U.S.C. §844(d) and 18 U.S.C. 844(i) potentially carry a term of life imprisonment upon conviction.

3. In addition, the United States further moves that the Court order the defendant to disclose to the government any collateral acts or issues that he intends to use at trial to impeach the government's civilian witnesses, prior to asking such questions before the jury. The government is not trying to improperly restrict cross-examination. It merely seeks an opportunity to ask the Court to rule whether any subjects are an improper form of impeachment, before defense counsel makes improper reference to them in front of the jury. This is the same procedure that is used whenever the government seeks to
