

UNITED STATES COURT OF APPEALS FOR THE FIRST CIRCUIT

---

RAB

SEP 5 1997

No. 97-1239

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
Appellee

v.

ALFRED W. TRENKLER
Defendant-Appellant

---

GOVERNMENT'S MOTION FOR ADDITIONAL TIME
--TO SEPTEMBER 17, 1997--TO FILE ITS BRIEF

The United States Attorney respectfully requests additional time--to September 17, 1997--to file its brief in the above-captioned appeal. The government's brief is presently due on September 10, 1997. In support of this request, the government states that: (1) although the government's brief is substantially done, additional time is required to review and complete it; (2) the undersigned, who is responsible for reviewing the brief, is presently working on two other appeals, each of which is due that same week and each of which raises an issue of first impression in this Circuit: United States v. Andrade, Appeal No. 96-2309 (due September 8, 1997), and United States v. Romano, 97-1630 (due on September 12, 1997); and (3) as of yesterday, September 3, 1997, when the undersigned checked with the clerk's office, this case was not scheduled for oral argument; accordingly the additional time should not interfere with the Court's schedule.

Respectfully submitted,

DONALD K. STERN
United States Attorney
